SOFT SKILLS TRAINING WORKSHOP

DATE: 16 April, 2022

VENUE: Room No. 403, MBA Block

TIME: 9:50 A.M

No. of Participants - 148

In the most literary sense, Soft Skills are character traits and interpersonal skills that characterize a person's relationship with other people. Dr. Marcel M. Robles, an experienced professor once said, "Soft skills have more to do with who we are than what we know." The importance of soft skills for students is enormous, both with regard to their studies and with regard to their future careers. In order to develop the much needed soft skills in students, the Department of Mass Communication organised a Soft Skills Training Workshop by anchor, soft skills & motivational trainer Mr. Thakur Shashant Singh on 16th April 2022 at Room No 404.

The workshop started off by Mr. Shashant introducing himself & sharing his experiences in this field. He took the students through the basic idea of soft skills & why their importance in one's day-to-day life. He asked questions and stated real life examples that the students could relate to & created a fun, friendly & interactive atmosphere. There were brief discussions on various soft skills to help the students stand out in today's competitive world. The workshop was extremely participative, a huge success and will go a long way in helping students hone up their soft skills and surge ahead in a more confident manner.
